DUTIES OF OFFICE HOLDERS

The duties outlines below are a representative sample, for a detailed description refer to Section 4c Of the Order of Saint John Manual.

PRIOR

The Prior is the head of the Priory Chapter and its Council and shall direct the Priory firmly, but with understanding and fairness and promote the collection of charitable funds.

VICE-PRIOR

The Vice-Prior shall deputise for the Prior in his/her absence from meetings or on such other occasions and with such delegated powers as may be given and authorised by the Prior.

VICE-CHANCELLOR

The Vice-Chancellor is the first executive officer and as such he/she shall carry all responsibility pertaining to this office. He/she shall also act as Secretary, keep records, issue notice of meetings and other events and conduct all normal correspondence between the Council and the Chapter and the Council and the Order's Grand Priory. He/she shall have the power to ensure that the Constitution, procedures and rules are upheld.

COMMANDER

The Commander once appointed by the Prior is the head of the Commandery, and is an Ex-officio member of the Priory Council. The Commander shall direct the Commandery and appoint other officers subject to the approval of the Prior.

TREASURER

The Treasurer shall be responsible for the finances of the Priory, receiving fees, making payments, rendering accounts etc.

CHAMBERLAIN

The Chamberlain shall be responsible for Ritual, Protocol and Ceremonial form.

HOSPITALLER

The Hospitaller shall deal with all matters appertaining to hospitals, clinics, sick visiting, deaths and widows. He/she shall also deal with all Church and Social events and their organisation and with welfare and charity.

JUDGE-AT-ARMS

The Judge-at-Arms is the Aide de Camp of the Prior and commonly acts as the sword bearer.

HERALD

The Herald will take charge of and be responsible for all matters involving insignia, regalia, uniforms and decorations and will work closely with the Chamberlain.

CONVENTUAL CHAPLAIN

The Conventual Chaplain shall normally be the principal Celebrant at all services of the Chapter, and administer the Oath to new members.

ARCHIVIST

The Archivist shall maintain for safe keeping signed originals of Minutes of the Priory Council and Chapter and any other documents entrusted for his safe keeping by the Prior.

HISTORIAN

The Historian is responsible for recording the major events in the history of the Priory and to carry out research and write documents on various aspects of the Order.

JUDGES OF THE ORDER

Judges of the Order are appointed by the Sovereign Council, constitute the Supreme Court, and must not hold any other office within the Order. (Refer to Section 3.i of the Order of Saint John Manual).
